FEATURED SPEAKERS

Charlotte Lacroix, DVM, JD Founder and CEO, Veterinary Business Advisors, New Jersey

Dr. Lacroix is in demand as a speaker around the world, frequently presenting at major veterinary association events, along with numerous radio and TV appearances. She earned her Doctorate in Veterinary Medicine in 1988 from UC Davis, completed a large-animal internship at the University of Guelph, and worked at an equine medical and surgical referral practice serving northern New Jersey. She then earned her JD degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1997. Contributing regularly to the JAVMA, NAVC's Today's Veterinary Practice and Veterinary Practice News, and AAHA, VCNA and DVM360 publications.

Amy Grice, VMD, MBA President, Amy Grice VMD MBA LLC, Montana

Dr. Grice was an ambulatory equine practitioner in the Hudson Valley of NY for 25 years and served as the managing partner of Rhinebeck Equine LLP, a large equine referral practice, until 2015, when she opened a veterinary business consulting firm. She completed her veterinary education at the University of Pennsylvania's School of Veterinary Medicine and earned her MBA from Marist College School of Management in 2014. Dr. Grice is a member of the Board of Directors of the AAEP, where she also serves on several committees and her areas of special interest are communication, leadership, and business strategies.

Nathan M. Slovis, DVM

Director, Hagyard Equine Medical Institute, Kentucky

Dr. Slovis has published over 50 manuscripts in both national and international peer reviewed veterinary journals. He is a frequent speaker at many national and international veterinary conferences. He is the Editor of both the Atlas of Equine Endoscopy and The Atlas of Diseases/Disorders of the Foal both distributed by Elsevier. He has also authored numerous book chapters related to Equine Neonatology, Equine Neurology, Hyperbaric medicine, and infectious diseases. He is also a Certified Hyperbaric Technologist and a Member of the Veterinary Infectious Disease Society.
