

Online Certificate Academy Scholarship

In Honor of Ms. Milissa Finnegan, RVT

Information, Criteria and Application Form

AAEVT member, Milissa Finnegan RVT, passed away suddenly in December 2008. She was enrolled in the AAEVT Online Certificate Academy and had just returned from her first AAEP Convention. Due to her untimely passing, Milissa was unable to complete the few remaining courses to fulfill her professional goal of earning this Certificate. It meant a great deal to her and, to honor her commitment, the AAEVT presented Dr. Strickland, her employer and AAEP member, her Certificate of Completion which he presented to her family at her memorial. Milissa leaves behind a husband and daughter, and the many horses and animals, which were touched by her kindness and compassion.

The intent of this scholarship: At the suggestion of Milissa Finnegan's family and employer, the AAEVT has established this scholarship for those who are enrolled in the AAEVT Online Certificate Academy. The scholarship is intended to assist veterinary technicians, assistants, practice managers, and students who are employed by a licensed Veterinarian or enrolled in an AVMA/ CVMA accredited Veterinary Technology Program, with enrollment in the AAEVT Online Certificate Academy or attend the required AAEVT Regional Symposium and wet lab to complete the program.

Twice a year - in the Spring and in the Fall - the AAEVT will accept applications for consideration and make a distribution from the Milissa Finnegan Scholarship fund. The scholarship will be funded by AAEVT Online Certificate Academy program revenue. A maximum of (1) one scholarship for a total value of $450.00 -OR- complimentary access to One Module of the program may be awarded twice each year. (The AAEVT reserves the right to award less than $450.00 based on available funds.)

Criteria: Scholarships will be awarded by a selection panel, which will consist of the AAEVT Executive Board and Regional Contacts.

1. The scholarship may be awarded to current AAEVT members who are, at the time of application, enrolled in the AAEVT Online Certificate Academy.
2. The scholarship is intended to go towards costs as course fees, textbooks or any associated travel or subsistence expenses with attending the required AAEVT Regional Event.
3. Closing dates for the applications are April 1st and September 1st. Notifications will be made 15 days after the deadlines by the AAEVT Immediate Past President via phone call, followed by an official award letter.
4. A successful applicant will be expected to complete the AAEVT Online Certificate Academy program, including all studies, training or other purposes for which the scholarship is awarded. If the successful candidate does not use the scholarship monies for the purpose intended, he/she will repay all monies to AAEVT or such proportion as the panel may determine.
5. Each recipient of a scholarship shall make a brief report to the panel at the conclusion of the studies/training for which the scholarship has been awarded. This shall be submitted to and in care of the presiding President of the AAEVT within 30 days of completion of program/ studies.
6. Scholarships will be awarded to successful applicants at the AAEP/AAEVT Annual Convention. Attendance at the awards Ceremony is not mandatory in order to receive the scholarship, however is encouraged. If the applicant is not able to attend, the Scholarship payment will be sent mid-May and mid-December by check.

All AAEVT members that meet the following eligibility requirements may apply for the scholarship.

- Applicants must be current AAEVT members in good standing and currently enrolled in the AAEVT Online Certificate Academy at the time of application.
